Home for Myrtle Do your kids struggle with making friends? Do they sometimes feel like they don't belong? Home for Myrtle tells a tale about a friendly red monster who needs a place to live. Myrtle the Monster feels like she doesn't belong anywhere and faces rejection in her search for a place to live. She learns that even someone who seems like an unlikely friend can be the one who helps you in the end. Aimed for ages 0-6, Home for Myrtle provides a fun and interesting story for kids of all ages and is told through rhyming verse and colourful illustrations. The Myrtle the Monster series is ideal for enjoyable bed-time stories, preschoolers and children learning to read.

Party for Myrtle Do your kids feel like they don't have any friends? Do they ever feel alone? Party for Myrtle tells a tale about Myrtle the Monster's birthday. Myrtle feels alone on her birthday because she thinks that no one knew it was her birthday - she felt like she didn't have any friends. However, her neighboring companions surprise her with a wonderful and exciting birthday party with lots of fun to be had. Aimed for ages 0-6, Party for Myrtle provides a fun and interesting story for kids of all ages and is told through rhyming verse and colourful illustrations. The Myrtle the Monster series is ideal for enjoyable bed-time stories, preschoolers and children learning to read.

New Hat for Myrtle Do your kids ever have bad hair days? Do they truly value friendship? New Hat for Myrtle tells a tale about Myrtle the Monster's 'bad hair day'. When Myrtle wakes up and finds that she doesn't look neat and tidy, she feels sad and hesitant to meet with her friends. Myrtle learns to truly value her friendship with her neighboring companions as some of her friends try to find her a hat to build up her confidence. Aimed for ages 0-6, New Hat for Myrtle provides a fun and interesting story for kids of all ages and is told through rhyming verse and colourful illustrations. The Myrtle the Monster series is ideal for enjoyable bed-time stories, preschoolers and children learning to read.

Kite Chase for Myrtle Do your kids love having new toys? Do they get upset if they lose them? Kite Chase for Myrtle tells a tale about Myrtle the Monster's adventure with her new kite. When Myrtle gets a fright and her kite blows away in the wind, she chases after her new toy and recruits all her friends as she runs past them. Myrtle learns to value her friends and not to judge someone for what they seem, rather than what they are on the inside. Aimed for ages 0-6, Kite Chase for Myrtle provides a fun and interesting story for kids of all ages and is told through rhyming verse and colourful illustrations. The Myrtle the Monster series is ideal for enjoyable bed-time stories, preschoolers and children learning to read.
