Suddenly a rash of violence breaks out across the metropolis. From the modus operandi it's clear to Lenny B that Royam is back from the dead exacting vengeance on the back stabbers and exterminating all other enemies and drug factions. Lenny B continues his epic battle with God and has not relinquished his will or soul as promised on many occasions. Lenny B is also in denial about the impact of losing Renee is having on his life. Will Lenny B be prepared when he faces God on Judgment Day? Has he truly healed from the breakup with Renee?
